

Leading blockchain money movement

Circle issues secure, regulated stablecoins like USDC and provides tools to help businesses offer efficient, blockchain-based financial services to their customers worldwide.

Founded in 2013

US-based company with BlackRock, Fidelity among investors

USDC is the largest US-regulated stablecoin with $13T+ in global transactions since its inception. It's a faster, safer, and more efficient way to exchange money around the globe.

* Circle Mint account users are automatically enrolled in the standard redemption feature. With standard redemption, it's free to burn up to $15M/day; a fee of .1% will be charged for redemptions greater than $15M. Standard redemption burn transactions will be processed by Circle near-instantly. Circle Mint account users who opt-in to the basic redemption option will not be charged a fee to burn regardless of the transaction amount. With basic redemption, burn transactions will be processed by Circle within two (2) business days. For more details, please refer to the Help Center.
